OTHER NOTICES

New Friends International Guildford: Find out ways to help the FIG ministry: full details are available on this link.

Join the branch: At FI the branch is similar to a board of trustees on a local level, representing a variety of local churches. If you want to find out more about the function of the branch you can read the branch handbook. For those who are interested in volunteering, FIG is excited to let you know about the updated volunteers handbook. In the next few months FIG expects three of the current team to step down, due to their terms of six years coming to an end. Therefore, they are looking to find people to join the branch, particularly (but not exclusively) someone who is experienced and passionate about fundraising. If you are interested in finding out more about volunteering, contact Asafh: chair.figuildford@outlook.com.

Growing Cross-Cultural Training Morning: is provisionally booked for 18th January 2025. Please keep the date free in your diaries, if you are interested.

Admin support: FIG is looking for someone who can support the team with their various admin tasks; either for a couple of hours a week, or if you have a whole day to give, there is the option of paid part-time employment. So, if you get excited about writing emails, sending letters, keeping data up to date and have some spare time to give FIG, they would like to hear from you. Contact: lilli.jones@friendsinternational.uk.

Amnesty International's Write for Rights campaign and CSW's Connect and Encourage campaign. On 26th November, Renew QE Park members will be writing solidarity and support cards for these campaigns. The activity will be "officially" introduced at 1.00pm by lighting a candle and reading a poem and a prayer. The prayer will be written by Janet Wilkinson, who is also helping members to choose some cases to focus on. Cards and information about these cases will be available from 12.00 to 3.00, so if you are able to pop in to add your signatures and words of support to the cards, this would be much appreciated by Renew QE Park members, as well as recipients of the cards. Please drop in whenever is most convenient during this time. There will be tea and biscuits throughout!

The Evangelic Alliance (EA Uk): Two bills are coming up in Westminster. We need God's wisdom. Thank you for upholding the EA in prayer.

1. Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill:

On 16 October, Kim Leadbeater Labour MP for Spen Valley, introduced a private members bill to legalise assisted dying in the UK. The EA has spoken out in the media outlining concerns for those individuals with chronic long-term illnesses, those living with disabilities, and those feeling burdened to end their lives.

Ahead of the 29 November second reading and vote, the EA will be encouraging members to write to their local MP. It is an opportunity to outline personal pastoral concerns, the disproportionate impact on those from minority ethnic backgrounds and those living with and/or caring for those with a disability or long-term illness. To access all of the EA's previous political engagement and the "write to your MP" ask (which will commence in early November), please visit EA's assisted dying page.

2. Terrorism (Protection of Premises) Bill

This bill (also known as Martyn's law) has been a long-term pledge by both the former Conservative and the new Labour government. Its aim is to place a legal responsibility on all event spaces and public venues to protect the public from a terrorist incident. The EA has written to the Home Office policy team and is awaiting a response on exception clauses to places of worship, Christian conferences and residential premises.

In the coming weeks the EA will be producing a written briefing for MPs and government ministers ahead of committee stage, encouraging them to consider the many social action projects led by churches in their communities. The EA are also calling for a consideration of different types of Christian events to ensure the costs to comply are reasonable and that proposals do not limit or restrict activities or events on the grounds of religious belief.
